FLOOR DEBATE

March 8, 2001 LB 585A

File, I probably will participate more actively in the debate.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. On the discussion the advancement of LB 585A, Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, Senator Engel, Senator Chambers is onto this now, you better think of some amendments.

SENATOR ENGEL: Well, we'll think of something. But as far as the trolls, I...I...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Engel, would you respond?

SENATOR ENGEL: ...the reason they'd never eat me, I'm not...I don't think I'd be very tasty.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Made...made me think of my grandfather, who in his younger days used to run greyhounds after coyotes with his farmer neighbors; I used to tag along on some of those.

SENATOR ENGEL: Which would you rather be?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Pardon me?

SENATOR ENGEL: Which would you rather be?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, I'd rather be the greyhound.

SENATOR ENGEL: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: But...but the story is this, you know, greyhounds hunt by sight.

SENATOR ENGEL: Yeah.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And every once in a while, sometimes, if they get out of sight, they'll lose the prey. And so you always had what we used to call a stag hound, which hunted by scent. And there was always the scent there. So now you've got Senator Chambers, the stag hound, on your trail. (Laugh) And he's going to get me back in visual sight of you, here pretty soon.
